Dear Applicant:

We have considered your application for exemption from Federal income tax as an organization described in § 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (hereinafter "the Code").

FACTS

The information submitted discloses that you were incorporated under the corporation laws of articles of incorporation state that you were organized "to provide financial assistance for the needy."

On your Form 1023 regarding your activities and operational information, you state "The primary objective of the foundation is to offer financial assistance, mostly in the form of actual cash and credit, on a professional basis and approach, to those persons who are in immediate need, such as the homeless, the sick, and any other person whose needs are temporary in nature, as verses those who are in actual need of longterm financial assistance."

You use the following activity codes to identify your activities: -- Supplying money, goods or services to the poor,

-- Services for the aged, and

-- Aids to the handicapped.

Sources of financial support shown on your Form 1023 state "At the present time this organization does not have any procedure for the generation of income other than the following:...

Direct donations from the general public at large, Larger sums from various fund raising activities,

(c). A possible 'thrift store' type operation,

Donations of property (both personal and real) which can be turned

(e) Various others as may be recommended and implemented by the organization."

Information submitted indicates that you are currently not engaged in any activity aside from organizational activities. Also, you will not start any of your activities until your tax exemption has been granted.

ISSUE

Does the organization qualify for exemption under the Code § 501(a) as an organization described in the Code § 501(c)(3)?

LAW

THE SECOND SECON

Code § 501(c)(3) provides exemption to organizations organized and operated exclusively for charitable, educational, or other exempt

Income Tax Regulations (hereinafter "Reg.") § 1.501(c)(3)-1(a) provides that in order to be exempt as an organization described in the Code § 501(c)(3), an organization must be both organized and operated exclusively for one or more of the purposes specified in that section. If an organization fails to meet either the organizational test or the operational test, it is not exempt.

Revenue Procedure 90-27, § 5.01 states "A ruling or determination letter will be issued to an organization, provided its application and supporting documents establish that it meets the particular requirements of the section under which exemption is claimed. Any oral representation of additional facts or modification of facts as represented or alleged in the application for a ruling or determination letter must be reduced to writing over the signature of an authorized individual."

Revenue Procedure 90-27, § 5.02 states "Exempt status will be recognized in advance of operations if proposed operations can be described in sufficient detail to permit a conclusion that the organization will clearly meet the particular requirements of the section under which exemption is claimed. A mere restatement of purposes or a statement that proposed activities will be in furtherance of such purposes will not satisfy this requirement. The organization must fully describe the activities in which it expects to engage, including the standards, criteria, procedures or other means adopted or planned for carrying out the activities, the anticipated sources of receipts, and the nature of contemplated expenditures. Where the organization cannot demonstrate to the satisfaction of the Service that its proposed activities will be exempt, a record of actual operations may be required before a ruling or determination letter will be issued. In those cases where an organization is unable to describe fully its purposes and activities, a refusal to issue a ruling or determination letter will be considered an initial adverse determination from which administrative appeal or protest rights will be afforded."

ANALYSIS AND CONCLUSION

and the second of the second o

You failed to fully describe to the satisfaction of the Internal Revenue Service, that the activities in which you expect to engage will be in furtherance of your purposes. Accordingly, you do not meet the operational test as required by Reg. § 1.501(c)(3)-1(c).

Donations to your organization are not deductible by donors under the Code § 170.

If you are in agreement with this proposed determination, we request that you sign and return the enclosed agreement, Form 6018, Consent to Proposed Adverse Action. Please note that the instructions for signing are on the reverse side of the form.

If you are not in agreement with this proposed determination, we recommend that you request a hearing with our office of Regional Director of Appeals. Your request for a hearing should include a written appeal giving the facts, law, and any other information to support your position as explained in the enclosed Publication 892. You will then be contacted to arrange for a hearing. The hearing may be held at the office of Regional Director of Appeals, or if you request, at a mutually convenient District Office. A self-addressed envelope is enclosed.

If we do not hear from you within 30 days from the date of this letter, and you do not protest this proposed determination in a timely manner, it will be considered by the Internal Revenue Service as a failure to exhaust available administrative remedies and will then become our final determination.

Code § 7428(b)(2) provides, in part, "A declaratory judgment or decree under this section shall not be issued in any proceeding unless that the Court of Claims, or the district court of the United States for the District of Columbia determines that the organization involved has exhausted administrative remedies available to it within the Internal Revenue Service."

You are required to file Federal income tax returns, Form 1120, U.S. Corporate Income Tax Return, annually with your respective Service

If you have any questions, please contact the person whose name and telephone number are shown in the heading of this letter.

Thank you for your cooperation.

Sincerely yours,

Richard R. Orosco District Director
